Intelligent Products of a New Era

Qi

The universal life force energy is the total of all essential frequencies and information that are required for any physical and psychological action of the human being.

Quant

The light quanta (photons) form fields that penetrate all human systems, and transport and provide life force energy at an extreme speed.

QI-QUANT IS THE OPTIMUM ENERGETIC CELL NUTRITION.

New Pathways for your Health Prevention, Regeneration & Performance-Enhancement

The combination on of quantum physics, natural frequencies and knowledge about energetics forms the basis of Qi-Quant energy regulation.

In energy medicine, it has long been known that biological life does not function on the metabolic processes of nutrients and oxygen alone. The influence of the Earth's magnetic field, the sunlight spectrum and cosmic information is a further basis of biological life.

These elementary energies and their frequencies ensure the energetic order and energetic provision in the human organism.

Each individual cell is a self-contained life system and contains a certain energetic potential. This level of energy is necessary for all processes within the cells and subsequently for communication with other cells. The energetic potential is built up through the absorption of photons (light quanta) and stored in the cells. If the energy potential sinks too low, then the cell can only carry out its intra- and extracellular functions to a limited degree, or perhaps not at all.

Qi-Quant energy regulation provides the cells with photons (light quanta) at an optimal frequency via the energy system (chakras), and so the energetic potential of the cells can be quickly brought to a very high level. This allows for the reactivation of self-healing powers and enables fast cell- function-regulation. The effect of Qi-Quant energy regulation can be seen as exclusively energetic and includes all known energetic recovery support.

Qi-Quant Technology

To create an optimal energetic well being zone and regeneration for humans – that is the motivation of developer Harald Granzer. You can experience this with the unique Qi-Quant products.

Qi-Quant breaks new ground in quantum physics

After 17 years of research in the field of quantum physics, Harald Granzer has succeeded in developing a product range of unique quantum-physical „energy products“.

Especially the many years of developmental work with Dr. Robert Becker and the „Dr. Becker Institute“ in New York, as well as his intensive research exchanges with world-renowned scientists, quantum physicists and biologists, such as Dr. Bruce H. Lipton (stem cell researcher) have led to the ground-breaking research results on which the unique Qi-Quant technology is based.

In the Qi-Quant labs, innovations and new aspects of energy medicine are constantly being researched and integrated into new Qi-Quant products.

Qi-Quant Technology

Qi-Quant technology is a symbiosis of Tesla patents, knowledge on frequency therapy, energetics and the latest „quantum-physical research“.

All Qi-Quant devices work with free (zero-point) energy and without electricity. The products regulate in an energetically intelligent way, without having to be continuously re-tuned. The quantum fields that are generated contain all cell, earth, solar and cosmic frequencies, which ensure the natural regulation at all, levels in the human body. In this way, the body's self-healing powers are activated.

www.qi-quant-technology.com

The following components make up the unique Qi-Quant technology:

1. Quantum-energetic information matter
2. Quantum field generator
3. Frequency converter

How does Qi-Quant work?

The defined bio-information gained from 17 years of Qi-Quant research is modulated onto an ELF scalar wave. This information signal is strengthened and imprinted onto the carrier media in a Faraday cage via specially developed flat coil formations.

The quantum field generator builds up the quantum field, stabilizes it permanently and regulates the field intensity. The frequency converter implicates the information from the quantum-energetic materials in the built-up quantum field and thus provides all the necessary frequencies.

All Qi-Quant products are manufactured by hand in Austria and Switzerland.

Cell energy through frequencies

Every human cell resonates with a certain frequency of the Earth's magnetic field, sunlight and the cosmos.

By supplying our cells with these optimal frequency spectra, they can build up their energy potential to the full.

Lack of energy due to daily stresses

Energetic interference fields and weak nutrients in water, in the air and in our food cause the cells to oscillate more slowly.

These influences block the positive impulses of the 'Vital Frequency Spectrum' of the Sun, the Earth and the Cosmos.

This can result in the occurrence of chronic and acute impairments to our well-being, such as:

- Physical pain
- Tiredness
- Lack of concentration
- Listlessness
- Sleep problems

Energy Board PRO

The Energy Board PRO is the perfect energy regulation in combination with forms of therapy which are received lying down:

- Massages of all kinds (e.g. healing, sports and meridian massages)
- Craniosacral therapy
- Physiotherapy
- Foot reflexology
- Acupuncture
- Various energy treatments (e.g. Reiki, Pranic Healing)
- Psychotherapy sessions

... to name but a few forms of therapy whose success is enhanced by the Energy Board PRO.

Energy regulation is gentle and has an effect throughout the entire organism.

- The Energy Board PRO can be positioned under a massage table if the construction of the table allows for it.
- Naturally, the Energy Board PRO can be positioned anywhere where the person can lie down. Of course, it is recommended to place a so cover over the Energy Board PRO.
- The Energy Board PRO is based on 85% Earth frequencies and 15% sunlight frequencies.
- The quantum formation of the Energy Board PRO is a spherical quantum field.
- Deep physical relaxation and emotional release are the most common reactions and experiences stated by users.

Bright White & Bright Blue

The new intelligent Energy Boards

Gentle, pulsating energy fields activate your cell metabolism.
Daily application provides your body with energizing vital frequencies.

As support for therapeutic application for pains and injuries.

Too low energy potential disrupts cell function

Everyday energetic stress (electromagnetic interference fields, food that lacks energy, air pollution, emotional stress, etc.) causes our cells to oscillate slower. This can result in chronic or acute discomfort, such as lack of concentration, listlessness, sleep problems, pains.

For immediate Activation & Regeneration

The provision with the optimal vital frequency spectrum by the revolutionary Qi-Quant technology leads to an immediate recharge of the energy potential in all cells of the body. Since the BRIGHT also serves as support for therapeutic application for pains and injuries.

Powerful & creative

The BRIGHT provides the necessary energy for all daily challenges: at any age, at any place, private or in business. For performance-enhancement in sports or at work – or simply for in between times. So that you can accomplish all that you intend to.

Application

3 – 15 minutes, when required, simply sit or lie down on it.

The effects on our organism can be documented with dark-field-microscopy and heart-rate-variability diagnostics (HRV).

EXPERT TIP:
a video on this topic can be found on the website of your Qi-Quant consultant
(see back cover).

The naturopath Denise Hintermayer has worked with dark-field-microscopy as a diagnostic option for many years and has been able to repeatedly show enormous changes in the blood analysis before and after the application of Qi-Quant Energy Boards.

Qi-4-pets

The Energy Board for pets

This Board offers completely new solutions in the therapy of pets. Qi-4-Pets brings your pet into the optimal vibrational state. Staying on the Board leads to a harmonization of vibrations and the cells can regenerate in an optimal way. Therapy with the Qi-4-Pets Board brings the life-force-energy (Qi) of the pet into the optimal energetic state, self-healing powers of the pet are supported in the best possible way, anxiety and stress of the pet are reduced.

Cares for your Pet's Balance

Pets, of course, also have an energy body besides their physical body. They also show blockages in their energy system, which want to be released and harmonized.

While pets live their lives differently from us, they are also impacted by their experiences. Hence pets also experience traumas and psychological imbalances, and also karmic themes, mostly were created in relation with humans. Pets also carry these memories that can be perceived as blockages in the energy system.

Users report the following effects

- Provides more balance, reduces stress and anxiety
- Enables a better connection with the pet. Relaxation for the pet and the owner.
- Promotes improved regeneration. Hence supports the health of pets. Resolution of fears, traumas and blockages.
- Activates and promotes cell metabolism, detoxification, harmonization of digestion, improved intake of oxygen.
- Promotes the strengthening of self-healing powers.
- Helps with tensions and chronic pains: sacroiliac joints, arthritis, muscle and joint pains.

Refine the air you breathe with Qi-Quant Bio-Ioniser Cosmic Ionic

Energetically clean air for your home, your living and working spaces

Everybody knows that great feeling you get after a long walk in the woods: your head is clear, your whole body is full of fresh air. The next day you still feel strong and vital. Totally different to a day at the office, a long car or train journey or after a flight.

Why does office air make you feel tired?

Oxygen in the air we breathe is only biologically active when it is ionised. That means that it has a negative electric charge. Only negatively charged oxygen ions can react with the atoms in the body and give them new energy. In fully air-conditioned office air, there are 400 times fewer negatively charged oxygen ions than in the air in the woods. Particularly bad ionic climates can be found in city centres, flats, restaurants, and especially in cars and on subways.

What are these ions?

Ions are molecules, which have lost or gained at least one electron. They are either positively or negatively charged and thus polarised. Ions are always trying to maintain the balance. Negatively charged ions can attach themselves to pollutants, allergens and various pathogens, which are positively charged, to make them harmless.

What effect do these ions have on humans?

Scientists and biologists have proven that negatively charged oxygen ions in the air we breathe are essential for our metabolism. Breathing in ionised air delivers more oxygen to the blood, which means that organs can function better and improve cell metabolism. Negatively charged ions make it easier for the body to absorb oxygen, can revive body cells, increase oxygen absorption in the blood and activate the metabolism.

You want to have that great feeling more often? In your home too, if possible?
Every day? Gift yourself with the innovative Qi-Quant technology and refine the air you breathe with the Cosmic Ionic - MADE IN AUSTRIA!

Ionised Oxygen protects

Certainly, a daily long walk in the forest would be ideal, as the needles of spruce, pine and fir negatively charge the oxygen in the air. Other natural generators of ions are atomizing water particles at waterfalls or at the seashore.

The Cosmic Ionic provides energetically clean air

The Cosmic Ionic is a technical device of modern physics to refine the air you breathe without electricity.

Leading by example: the Qi-Quant Bio-Ioniser Cosmic Ionic is an exclusive high tech innovation. It produces zero emissions and hence does not have any negative effects on our environment. Furthermore, it operates without electrical power source, such as electricity, batteries, etc.

The revitalisation of the human energy system is increased enormously.

The following effects can be noticed:

- Harmonised and improved indoor climate
- Enhanced focus and concentration
- Improved creativity and memory
- Enhanced physical well-being
- Less tired on car journeys
- Light-hearted feeling in all areas in working and living spaces with electromagnetic stress
- Improvement with asthma and breathing problems

Sleep healthily again

Paracelsus taught already 500 years ago: „A sick bed is a sure way to destroy your health.“

Chronic lack of sleep or severe sleeping disorders can lead to serious diseases such as depression or suffering of the nervous system. The intensity of risks from the environment is often surprisingly high at home, especially in the bed room.

The sleeping place is always at the centre of building biology readings, consultations and renovations. It is the place where we spend most of our time and long hours.

It's during the sensitive time of sleeping, that our body and psyche are most vulnerable. What is needed there is relaxation and not tension.

The human being is a lot more sensitive during the regenerative passive sleeping phase at night than during the waking state. The immune system, the regulatory function and vegetative procedures are on low flame during that time. At night, the body repairs what has suffered damage during the day. At night, the constant exposure to environmental stimuli, such as e-smog through WLAN, mobile phones, electrical lines, as well as geopathogenic interferences through pressure or sonic waves coming from deep within the Earth and subtle energetic irritations from water veins and grids needs to stop.*

How sensitive are you?

There are always people who claim they can sleep well anywhere. This is absolutely possible, as there are more and less sensitive people among us. It actually is a good sign to be highly sensitive – even if it might not be perceived as such first – however highly sensitive people can fully trust their intuition and the reactions of their body. Every sign, whether positive or negative, wants to communicate something to the human being. It leads sensitive people to know if a sleeping place is good or bad. Less sensitive people do not receive these signs from their body and often are seemingly well for a long time until a severe disease hits them.

* See legal notice on page 31

The Qi-Quant Regeneration Plate

Regenerative sleep in the natural quantum field

In the quantum field of the Regeneration Plate, the human energy system has all cell frequencies and all important regeneration frequencies at its disposal. The field strength of the quantum field is tuned in a way that the energy system cannot be over-energised. The body's own energy field only comes into resonance with the frequencies, which are necessary for the optimal energy supply of the cells.

The effect of the Regeneration Plate on the user is exclusively energetic and includes all known energetic healing support aspects, such as:

- Deep, regenerative sleep
- Harmonisation for body, mind and soul
- Elimination of energetic blockages
- Opening of the energy flow
- Protection from environmental stimuli

Night after night, the energy potential of the cells is gently rebuilt.
As a result, your regulatory system is back to full strength in the morning.
So you feel well rested, recovered and fresh for the new day.

Office PRO

Our current office environment consists of a lot of electronic equipment, such as printers, wireless LAN, Bluetooth, mobile phones, etc. These applications have become indispensable, however often generate extremely strong electromagnetic fields.

This can cause the following effects:

- Tension
- Fatigue
- Headache
- Drop in performance
- Lack of concentration
- Disturbed metabolism
- Reduced vitality
- Burn-out

Our solution: bring nature to your work place

The Office Pro below your office chair is the activator at your work place that provides all vital frequencies of our life-force-energy and hence creates an optimal regenerative environment at work. It supports the body to be more resilient to work-related stress, electromagnetic and other radiation exposure in our high-tech work environment.

The ionised field that the Office Pro generates equals a stay in untouched nature. Every cell of your body receives these life- and energy-giving vital frequencies, so that you can easily manage intense pressure as well. You leave the office refreshed and awake after a day's work.

Customers report the following about the natural vitality field of the Office Pro

- It creates a healthy surrounding.
- Relaxation & regeneration at work.
- Increases vitality.
- Improves learning ability.
- Improves metabolism.
- Supports the immune system.
- Reduces the burden of stress.
- Decreases the risk for burn-out.
- Increases concentration.

No external power source is needed

Simply mount the Office Pro to your office chair below the seat and immediately enjoy the benefits of nature at your work place.

Medivital Healthcare conducted a study in the company Benefit Office Services using HRV measurements. The effects of the Office Pro could be clearly measured and documented.

The medical technology provider Medivital Healthcare and the Network for Prevention recommend our Office Pro for burn-out prevention and stress management.

Life-Force with the ReVital Tablet

The origin of our food

Healthy foods are increasingly in the consciousness of people nowadays. The quality of biologically processed produce depends on the quality of the source materials, which are crucial to maintain the natural life-force-energy in foods in the form of biophotons. Bio-Chemists have been aware of this energetic quality of foods for many years.

Life is more than the sum of all ingredients!

From Dead Foods to „Alive“ Foods

Why does an apple plucked from our own tree taste so much better than the same kind of apple that has been grown on a commercial farm and has been on a road for a long time?

When plants grow in direct and indirect sunlight and in a nutrient-rich soil, they store this energy in the form of biophotons. All kinds of pesticides, artificial fertilisation and farming can have a negative influence on the energetic quality of our foods. Scientists have showed the importance of biologically high-quality foods for our health from New Zealand in a far-reaching study in 1940.

With the ReVital Tablet it is possible to restore foods to biological high-quality. You can taste it!

Why ReVital Tablet?

ReVital stands for delight, quality of life and safety.

Use the power of nature with the unique quality of foods for your well-being!

The ReVital is based on the knowledge of information-transmission. With the ReVital Tablet all foods and liquids regain their original life-force.

Dead foods are in a natural way transformed into ‚alive‘ foods, foods for life. The ReVital Tablet does not need any service or maintenance. Put foods and liquids directly or in glass or ceramic containers onto the stainless steel surface of the ReVital Tablet. The nature-identical vibrational information generated by the ReVital Tablet is directly transmitted to the foods and liquids.

Applications and Effects

Numerous customers confirm that the use of the ReVital results in...

- A significant enhancement of taste and smell
- A noticeable harmonisation of all ingredients
- An increased tolerance of many foods
- Faster and richer growth of plants, when the ReVital is used on seedlings

*To energise foods, liquids and many other substances.
To delete the frequencies of toxins (clothes, shoes, beddings...), of softening agents (toys, food containers), pesticides (fruits, vegetables), heavy metals (foods).*

Water Alive

Whoever values a healthy modern lifestyle (in the sense of vitality, fitness and delight), and eats consciously, also needs high-quality water. Water is our number 1 'food' and the well of all life.

Revitalised water can initiate a deep cellular cleansing effect. The level of life-force-energy in the human body increases. This happens not only when drinking, but also when showering or bathing with water that has been revitalised with Water Alive. The regenerative potential of the cells increases! The water is noticeably softer and gently nurtures skin and hair.

Water possesses the unique physical characteristic to absorb and store information and transmit it to its environment and surroundings. Water reacts to all kinds of vibration. Besides (biological) signals from nature, water also absorbs artificial signals, such as electromagnetic interference fields. The good information is: all information that water has absorbed on its way through the pipes can be deleted.

The water revitalisation system Water Alive, developed by Austrian inventor Harald Granzer in 17 years of research and development, restores tap water in pipes with vibrational information back to its nature identic energetic quality. At the same time, all information in the water that is not good for our organism is deleted.

Graphic representation of water crystals. Photographed with the Emoto method (by Masaru Emoto in Zurich in 2005) under the microscope with 300x magnification at a temperature of -5°C.

Zurich's tap water...

receives...

a new micro structure with Water Alive.

Why is the taste of water directly from the spring perceived as much smoother than water that has been carried through our supply network?

Water loses its natural characteristics when it is pressed at high pressure into round pipes and forced to flow along a straight line. Due to this continuous pressure, the crystalline structure, the liveliness and the electromagnetic power of the water are destroyed and the biophoton percentage per water molecule is drastically reduced.

Water Alive increases the level of biophotons in water. In this way, water gets physically energised. With Water Alive, tap water has the same characteristics as fresh 'alive' spring water. The water molecules are restructured and water receives a 'crystalline structure'. You can enjoy your revitalised tap water as 'fresh from the spring'.

Water Alive is based on the knowledge of information transmission. Water Alive brings water into a biologically precious, very high inner order and stability. Due to the improvement of the water structure, the self-cleaning-ability and resilience of water increases. Water gets stabilised and biologically upgraded in a natural way.

Water Alive devices operate with free zero point energy, without electricity or chemical additives. Water Alive appliances do not require service nor maintenance. Cables are used to transmit the vibrational information that is generated in the Water Alive directly onto water-bearing pipes.

Numerous customers confirm that Water Alive is best suited to be applied and used for the following:

- Foods and Liquids (healthy nutrition is based on high-quality water)
- Shower and Bathing (the 'gentle wellness-water' becomes a well of refreshment)
- Flower garden and kitchen garden (plants love Water Alive and gratefully grow abundantly)
- Wellness and Spa (customers report that revitalised swimming pool water is gentle to skin and hair, and the risk of sore eyes and the odour of chlorine is greatly reduced due to less chlorine required)
- Animals (Water Alive has positive effects in animal husbandry, the animals drink more and are more resilient)
- Farming (after 1.5 years of experience, a farmer in Tirol reports faster growth and more resilient plants, higher yields; laying hens that show more beautiful feathers, live longer and lay more and higher quality eggs; healthier cows with less udder inflammations)
- Food production (water is an essential ingredient in almost all products and greatly influences product quality; our customers report a noticeable improvement in taste, e.g. baked goods).

Use the power of nature with the unique water quality for your well-being!
Also in your household:

- No more limescale on faucets and perlators
- Kettles are easy to clean
- Less skincare products are required due to softer water
- Reduction of household cleaning products
- No more regeneration salt in the dishwasher
- Less limescale on glass
- Water is noticeably easier to drink

Legal notice

The technology presented here has still not fully been accepted by the school of medicine and the school of thought.

Free energy and the polarised vibrations and frequencies connected to it are seen as irrelevant when it comes to having any influence on the human organism. The entire sector of energetics is still incomprehensible for classical science.

Consequently, Qi-Quant products are not healing products, and we emphasise that Qi-Quant makes no promises of any healing whatsoever. The use of Qi-Quant® products is not a therapy in a medical context and cannot replace a consultation with a doctor or alternative health practitioner.

In conventional science, both the existence and the pathogenic (geopathogenic) effects of water veins and earth radiation, as well as the effects of global grids, are not recognised. Therefore, protective measures are not seen as necessary.

In current scientific standards, electrosmog, and especially electromagnetic fields, mobile phone radiation or Wi-Fi are not seen as harmful to the organism's health.

We are therefore obliged to point out that our products, according to current scientific knowledge, can have no healing effect.
